

HANSEI UNIVERSITY

Make the first step to become a global leader in Hansei!

Hansei University, began from a Full Gospel Church-Theological School in 1953, was founded on the basis of justice, truth and love and the purpose of whole-rounded education contained Christian faith and study. It is going to be made a new history surpassed the past history as a world-class leveled university.

2015, Selected as a "Prestigious University" in Korea by the Ministry of Education for the Evaluation of University Structural Reform 2016, University Evaluation released by Joong-Ang Daily Newspaper

- Ranked 1st in Gyeongin region and 3rd in the nation for the excellent "Women Friendly University."
※ A university that promotes female university students' employment quality and tries to improve the gender equality in schools, therefore the award helps female high school students when choosing a college.
- 1st in the nation for the ratio of the class size and education of start-up program
- 2nd for the ratio of foreign professors in humanities and social sciences in the nation
- 3rd for the start-up activities of Alumni of Education-oriented university in the nation

Bachelor(Undergraduates, 4year curriculum) Course

Department of Social Science

● International Management major

The International Management major aims to develop professionals for companies in a rapid changing society with a Christian spirit. The International Business Administration offers three tracks: International Business & Management, Global Marketing & Online Start-up, and Accounting & Finance.

● International Tourism major

In the 21st century, when demand for tourism is increasing daily, this department develops professionals by simultaneously delivering theory and practical training in Tourism. Courses are based on the various fundamentals of tourism and hands-on training courses in the various fields of tourism.

● Media Advertising major

The Media Advertising program is cultivating talented professionals needed in the era of smart media with a Christian spirit. During the academic year, students study theories related to Journalism and Mass communication at a broadcasting studio, PR companies through internship and work experience.

● Police Administration major

The Police Administration major has as its purpose is to develop professional Human Resources support for Police, who will protect our national security, while maintaining social and public order.

Department of Design

● Visual Information Design major

The visual information design major has as its purpose the fostering of creative and proactive designers who will be responsible for communication via the visual image. The goal is efficient communication of information between society and people and among people. This is becoming more important in a digital media environment.

● Interior Architecture Design major

The interior architecture design major offers research and education for constructing an ideal human environment in the future and creating a new spatial culture. To this end, the university has built the best environment in a multidisciplinary setting, providing support in cutting edge equipment with environment-friendly policies.

● Textile Fashion Design major

The textile fashion design major fosters professionals who will adapt to the variety of markets in the fashion industry by providing an education that maximizes the harmonization of creativity and technique. Build a global and integrated design framework to courses that adhere closely to practical work, the major enables students to emerge as leaders of the textile fashion industry.

Department of Art

● Music major

The music major offers a wide range of specialties including piano, organ, string and wind instruments, voice, and composition/arrangement. Each specialty consolidates practical education while enabling students to build up varied performance and stage experience so that they can develop as competitive musicians.

● Art and Performance major

The art and performance program focuses on cultivating skills and capabilities required for a wide range of performing arts, so that students can become competent artists and leaders in society. In addition to acting, dancing and vocal training, students go through intense exercises and training to build a solid foundation as performing artists.

Department of Information Technology

● Electronic Software major

The electronic software program combines electronic engineering and computer engineering to train students to be creative and professional engineers with a solid background in both theory and practice.

● Information and Communication Technology major

The Information & Communication Technology(I.C.T) program is a convergence study of information, communications, computers, and electronics. This program provides students with various opportunities including shipbuilding, construction, and transportation as well as medical and automobile fields.

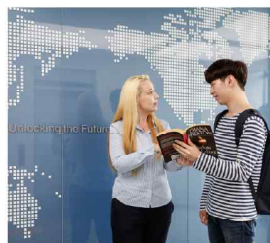

● Industrial Security major

The purpose of this Major is to train industrial security specialists who have comprehensive knowledge of security issues in terms of human and material resources. Hansei seeks to foster experts who are needed at national organizations, private enterprises and research institutions.

Department of International Language

● English Trade and Interpretation major

As the world is rapidly becoming more globalized exchanges in politics, economy, society and international trade between nations is increasing. Fosters talented students who can play a specialized role in the various fields through English as an international language.

● Chinese major

Republic of Korea has maintained a mutually beneficial relationship with China. Hansei seeks to develop proficient Chinese users who are ready to take on the challenges of a growing China in the global community. This program educates students on speaking, reading, writing, cultures, politics, and the history of China.

Department of Theology

● Theology major

The theology major seeks to foster spiritual theologians and Pastors who are furnished with a Christian world view and Christ's character and power. The major is designed to cultivate power to rightly convey and teach God's Word to this generation.

● Christian Education and Counseling major

This major aims to foster field-oriented leaders and counsellors with Christian education and counseling. Today, they cultivate professionals who combine the demands and education required by the churches and society.

Department of Nursing and Social Welfare

● Nursing major

The science of nursing aims to enhance the quality of life including prevention of illness, maintenance/promotion/recovery of health over the entire course of life from birth to death. This should be practiced in a spirit of love.

● Social Welfare major

We aim to understand the problems of modern society, to meet the needs of our society, and to foster professional experts who have acquired professional knowledge and skills. It provides a variety of educational courses, including 10 compulsory subjects required for social welfare, and a certificate of qualification for fitness programs for health.

Graduate School (Ph.D. and M.A. program course)

The graduate school was established for the purpose of fostering leaders who will contribute to the community and our nation via advanced scholarly research built on Christian faith. There is a masters and doctoral program for each major.

● M.A. program (2 or 3 year curriculum)

Department of Theology, IT Convergence, Police Studies, Counseling, Design Studies Music(Orchestra, Singing, Accompaniment, Voice, Organ, Composition, Piano, Music therapy, Strings, Choir) Music & Cultural Management, Art of Dance.

● Ph.D. program (3 year curriculum)

Department of Theology, IT Convergence, Police Studies, Management, Social Welfare Studies, Counseling, Design Studies, Music(Orchestral, Accompaniment, Voice, Organ, Composition, Piano, Piano Pedagogy, Chorus Conducting, Music Therapy), Arts & Cultural Management, Art of Dance.

Address : Office of International Affairs in Hansei University, 30, Hansei-ro, Gunpo-si, Gyeonggi-do, 15852, Republic of Korea

Inquiry call : +82-31-450-5140 (English Service)
+82-31-450-5216 (Chinese Service)
Fax: +82-31-450-5014

Main Site : www.hansei.ac.kr

Office of International Affairs Site : <http://hsiec.hansei.ac.kr>

E-mail : iec.hansei@gmail.com

